

Rail Trail System

Florence's premier walking and biking trail

The Florence Rail Trail system is a continuous walking and biking trail that connects many business and neighborhoods to parks and recreation areas. It is a popular place for runners, joggers, and bicyclists to exercise and explore the beautiful, natural sights in the local area. With its planned connection to The Grove, it will link multiple neighborhoods, a soccer complex, and Ebenezer Park together.